Donohoe Construction Company awarded General Contractor of the Year

Washington, DC, February 23, 2009 — Donohoe Construction Company is the 2009 recipient of the John H. Hampshire Award for Outstanding General Contractor in the $150 to $250 Million category. Donohoe was honored by the D.C. Metropolitan Subcontractors Association which held its 45th Annual Subby Awards Banquet on Saturday, February 21, 2009 at the Ritz Carlton in Tysons Corner.

The Subby Awards are held to honor the top general contractors, subcontractors, service providers, project managers, and field superintendents in the Association. Association members select the Outstanding General Building Contractor award recipient to honor the leading general contractor who has aided the subcontracting industry by continuously providing outstanding administration, efficient field supervision and fair financial practices.

With 54 years of general contracting experience, Donohoe Construction Company is proud to be recognized by our partners and colleagues as one of the most prominent general contractors in the Washington, DC metropolitan area.
